MEETINGS

Annual Meetings Once a year Elisad members meet in an annual meeting. This annual meeting is organised by one of the Elisad members with support of an organising committee. The annual meeting consist of two parts:

- A conference around a special theme which is of interest to all information professionals in the Alcohol and Drugs Field.

- A business meeting concerned with the affairs of the Elisad Association itself.

The Annual meeting is to enable librarians, documentalists, and other information specialists to get together, exchange ideas and information, strengthen the network and discuss all things of concern in our professional lives. 2010 Annual Meeting in Utrecht, The Netherlands

The 22nd Elisad annual meeting will be held 7-9 October 2010 in Utrecht, The Netherlands. The host is The Trimbos Institute. The theme of the meeting &ndash; European ATOD libraries in a time of economical challenges &ndash; will explore how the economical situation in Europe affects Elisad members.
